Bordeaux & its vineyards

Bordeaux, capital of wine, gateway to the vineyards

65 APPELLATIONS & MORE THAN 6000 WINE GROWERS

The Bordeaux wine region enjoys the distinction of being the largest AOC vineyard of France, this can be attributed to its great diversity of high-quality terroirs.

The wide range of wines that it produces will satisfy every wine lover for every occasion:

The "Vineyards & Discoveries" label

Mots of the wineries have been awarded the National Wine Tourism seal of approval

An eco-friendly vineyard

Currently over 65% of wineries have been awarded an accredited environmental certification. The aim is 100% by 2025

The Bordeaux Metropolis

Vineyards are never far away from Bordeaux.
There are more than 20 wineries in the area,
all within 30 minutes' drive from the city center

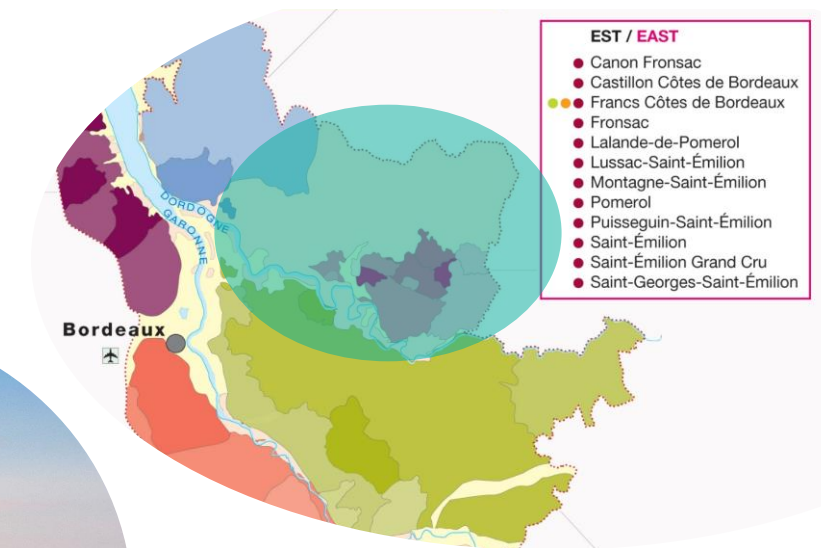

The Médoc

Otherwise known as the “Route des châteaux», this 80 km trail through the Médoc vineyards, from Eysines to Saint-Vivien de Médoc, via Margaux, Pauillac, Saint-Julien, and Saint-Estèphe, offers views of the varied architecture of Bordeaux best-known wine estates

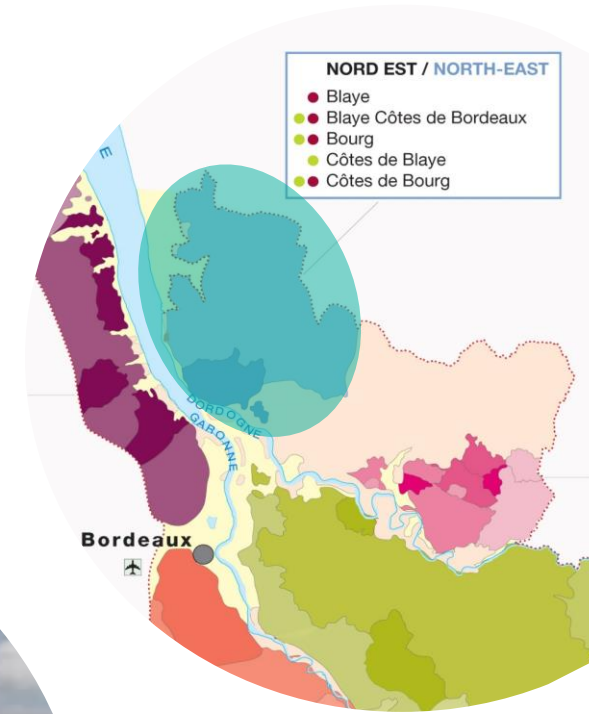

Saint-Émilion-Pomerol-Fronsac

Saint-Émilion, known as the «hill of 1,000 Châteaux», is famous for its fine, elegant wines, as well as its medieval village, UNESCO World Heritage vineyards and the largest monolithic church in Europe, carved out of solid rock

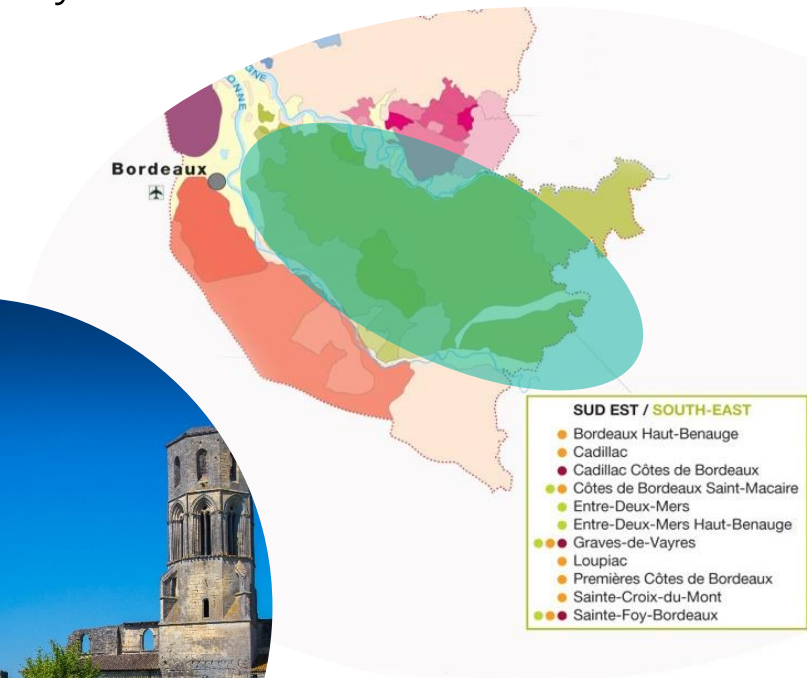

Blaye & Bourg

Just across the estuary, on the right bank, are the Côtes de Blaye and Bourg and its family properties. We find extraordinary views over the estuary, Romanesque churches, Gallo-Roman archaeological sites, and even picturesque little harbours!

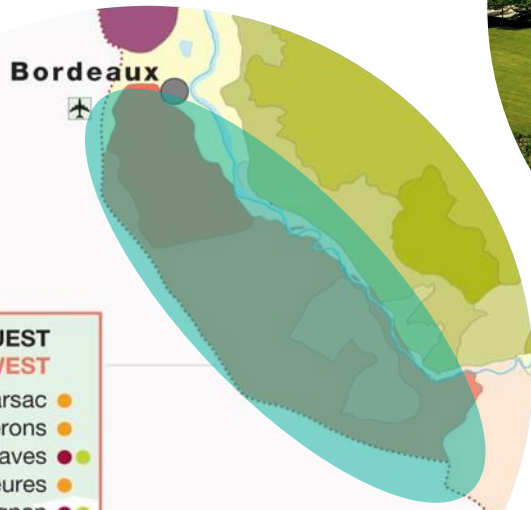

Entre-deux-Mers

The largest winemaking region in Bordeaux, often compared to Tuscany, produces a multitude of red, rosé, white and clairet wines. The area also boasts many picturesque villages and historic abbeys

Graves & Sauternes

To the south on the left bank of the Garonne River lie the origins of the Bordeaux vineyards, with Pessac-Léognan, Graves, Sauternes, Barsac, etc. These appellations produce wine in three colours: red, white, and gold
