An unforgettable journey fully immersed into the romantic atmosphere of this beautiful land and its history, including extraordinary culinary experiences, traditional local crafts, charming medieval villages as Poppi and San Casciano dei Bagni, beautiful timeless cities as Florence, Siena, Lucca and Pisa ... without forgetting the authentic experience of living in a beautiful Medicean Villa, immersed in an estate of vineyards and olive groves.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Grassina, The washerwomen village.

Arrival at the airport of Florence, Pisa or

Rome. FCO transfer to a Medicean Villa in Bagni a Ripoli area. Grassina is a fraction of the town of Bagno a Ripoli in the province of Florence. The place was born thanks to the merger in 1922 between two historic organizations in the town of Bagno a Ripoli area: the Choral Society of Mutual Aid San Martino in Strada, founded in 1888, and the Choral Society Grassina, founded in 1877. Grassina, until the beginning of the last century, was also known as a country of washerwomen as the proximity to two streams, the namesake Grassina and Ema, allowed to receive numerous items of laundry from the Florentine wealthy families. Dinner on your own, return to your Medicean Villa for an overnight.

Day 2 Catania and the Baroque

After breakfast, depart to Florence, the triumph of the Renaissance Florence is a wonderful and precious city that has entirely maintained its past charm and splendor. A charming city that never ends to surprise, with its masterpieces of art, the colored marbles of the churches and the architectures that evoke the splendor and the role played in the development of culture and art of the Renaissance. Return to your Medicean Villa for an overnight. (B)

Treasures of Tuscany

Day 4 Pisa, Lucca

After breakfast depart for Pisa. Take a walk through culture of the City of miracles. Pisa’s name derives from an Etruscan word meaning “out-fall”—the outlet formed by a river as it flows into the sea. Every four years Pisa celebrates its maritime origins by re-enacting naval battles between the four historic republics (Pisa, Venice, Genoa and Amalfi) during the Historic Regata on the Arno River. Piazza dei Miracoli (Square of Miracles) is the home to many of the city’s most beautiful attractions. The baptistery shares the piazza with the imposing Camposanto (sacred burial ground) whose 43 blind arcades face the square. To the right of the Camposanto is the marble covered cathedral, a masterpiece of Pisan Romanesque architecture built in the early 1600s. The famous Leaning Tower rises directly behind the cathedral. Depart for Lucca.

Lucca, the city of the one hundred churches Lucca, one Toscana’s most enchanting small towns, is entirely surrounded by 16th century walls (baluardi) made by ancient stones, enclosing one of Italy’s finest medieval treasures.

The city is full of Romanesque churches, museums, monuments and is the birthplace of Giacomo Puccini (in 1858), one of Italy’s most famous opera composers whose 15th century house which is now a museum, at Corte S. Lorenzo, 9 (via di Poggio) in Piazza della Cittadella, where there is a bronze statue of Puccini in the center. Dinner at leisure, return to your Medicean Villa for an overnight.

PISA

Day 5 Wine tasting in a ancient estate in Chiantishire!

After breakfast depart for the Chianti area to a amous vineyards farm. New technology and recycled materials were combined to give new life to the old barn on the farm, where large windows were installed on the ancient walls. By a complex process of restoration a charming setting was created, perfect for a sensory experience such as wine tasting. Here you will find the olive oil and other homemade products and delicacies of the best Tuscan tradition.

The tour includes the historic cellars for vinification and aging, the gardens and grounds with an account of the history of the villa. The tasting includes 3 red wines and Vin Santo served with samples of cheeses, cured meats, pickles of our production, bruschetta with Extra Virgin Olive Oil from the farm.

Chianti Vineyard

Day 6 Poppi, in the mystic and warrior Casentino

After breakfast depart for Poppi. Located in the center of the Casentino, one of the most beautiful valleys in Tuscany. The medieval village is a rare walled town, with the Castle of the Counts Guidi at its highest point, dominating over all. The Castle was designed by The celebrated Di Cambio family of architects, and was a “prototype” for the Palazzo Vecchio in Florence. Built in the 12th century, its façade has two mullioned windows, with a high tower rising above it at the center. It is surrounded by a defense wall with Guelf embat-lements and a broad moat. Thanks to frequent restorations over the centuries, the castle is in excellent condition. It houses a library, the Biblioteca Rilliana, which has hundreds of medieval manuscripts and precious incunabula.

For groups: Medieval dinner

For individual: Wild game dinner

Molin di Bucchio

Nestled on the Arno River, Molin di

Bucchio is one of the oldest mills in the Casentino area.

In the past, among the holdings of the medieval Counts Guidi of Porciano, milling activity has been carried out by the Bucchi family for more than 700 years. Molin di Bucchio has also been an important trout breeding center. The last miller was Pietro Bucchi, known locally as ‘Pietrone’, who was also called the ‘philosopher’ for his long beard and aloofness.

Camaldoli, the old monastery

Camaldoli was founded one thousand years ago by Saint Romuald, and is a Community of Benedictine monks. There are two houses, the Hermitage and the Monastery, immersed into the depths of the forest. They represent the two fundamental dimensions of monastic experience, solitude and communion. Located In the monastery is the guesthouse, the great chapter house, the old pharmacy or pharmaceuticals laboratory, where the monks worked spices and medicinal plants to cure the sick of the old “hospitable”. The current pharmacy, with the precious walnut furniture, dates back to 1543. In the Baroque church are works by Vasari. In the Renaissance became an important cultural center and after 1520 was activated internally also a print shop.

Day 7 Anghiari, The town of the Battle painted by Leonardo Da Vinci

After breakfast de[art for Anghiari. A splendid medieval town situated in the territory marked by the Tevere and Arno Rivers. A strong bastion thanks to heavy, 13th century walls, it is a reference point for many historical events where the Tuscan flag was held up high over a borderland which lived in a delicate state of balance. On the 29th of June, 1440, the famous Battle of Anghiari, frescoed by Leonardo Da Vinci in Palazzo Vecchio, re-affirmed Tuscan hegemony over Tuscany. The passage of time has left important signs in the churches and buildings of the historic centre, developing an impressive urban layout which makes the town unique and unmistakable. Its squares and narrow streets are home to antique shops and furniture restoration workshops; the museums and churches contain masterpieces of paintings and sculpture; at every corner you get fantastic views and breathtaking perspectives. Anghiari, surrounded by churches and castles, enjoys the wonderful scenery of the Northern Tevere valley, a natural amphitheatre permeated by Franciscan spirituality. A clean atmosphere and an abundance of age old woods dotted with monasteries.

Siena, the city of Palio

A traditional tour is inevitable if you will get to know the city of Siena for the first time. We will see the Basilica of San Domenico, where is preserved the relic head of St. Catherine Co-Patroness of Europe, the seat of the ancient Banca Monte dei Paschi, will walk to the Corso, the main street full of shops, and we will focus our attention on the famous Piazza del Campo, the square of the “Palio” and then we will get to the cathedral, with its many masterpieces. (B)
