The pinnacle of English life in the heart of the country. Located only an hour northwest of London, Oxfordshire is a region replete with picturesque villages, historic market towns, cosy pubs and rolling countryside, with the river Thames running through. Its perhaps the part of England that most resembles visitor's imaginations – quaint yet full of life.

The City of Oxford and its heritage sites and streets are twin marvels with a history stretching back more than 1,000 years, so it's no wonder the city is a firm favourite of filmmakers and TV producers and has inspired countless famous writers over the centuries, not least CS Lewis and JRR Tolkien. Oxford's skyline, which inspired its moniker 'the City of Dreaming Spires', is world famous for its many conical roofs. Visitors can view these from rooftop restaurants and bars, punt and cruise on the river Thames and Cherwell or explore the city, its heritage sites and streets, and oldest and renowned University of all on a walking tour. Whether your clients are looking for a cultured city break, romantic getaway, family holiday, or a weekend away with friends, Oxford has plenty to offer everyone.
